DATE: January 14, 2014

TO: Public Safety and Livable Neighborhoods Committee

FROM: City Attorney

SUBJECT: Crown Coffee and Hookah Lounge's Request to Hear an Appeal Related to Hearing Officer's Decision Upholding the Revocation of Police Permit Number 2011008326

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The Crown Coffee and Hookah Lounge holds a police permit to operate as a Tobacco Retailer. The Chief of Police revoked the Tobacco Retailer Permit. The revocation was appealed to the City's Administrative Hearing Program, which is contracted through the University of San Diego School of Law. The Administrative Hearing Program conducted an appeal hearing, and the hearing officer upheld the revocation. Crown Coffee and Hookah Lounge now seeks an appeal to the Committee on Public Safety and Livable Neighborhoods.

ACTION BEFORE THE COMMITTEE

The above-referenced matter is docketed for the limited purpose of determining whether the Committee will hear the appeal of Crown Coffee and Hookah Lounge. The procedure established for the Committee to make its determination is governed by San Diego Municipal Code (SDMC) section 33.0505.

Pursuant to SDMC section 33.0505(d), the Committee may accept an appeal for hearing when any of the following situations are found to exist:

- (1) The appellant was denied the opportunity to make a full and complete presentation to the hearing officer.

- (2) New evidence is now available that was not available at the time of the hearing officer's hearing.
- (3) The hearing officer's decision was arbitrary because no evidence was presented to the hearing officer that supports the decision.
- (4) The appeal presents a City-wide issue on which guidance of the Committee on Public Safety and Neighborhood Services (or its successor committee) is required and the matter is of City-wide significance.
- (5) The hearing officer's decision is in conflict with adopted Council policy or the Municipal Code.

Further, SDMC section 33.0505(e) describes the manner in which the Committee shall undertake its task:

- (e) The Committee on Public Safety and Neighborhood Services (or its successor committee) shall rely upon the record of the proceedings before the hearing officer and the written appeal. No oral presentations shall be made to the Committee on Public Safety and Neighborhood Services (or its successor committee) by proponents or opponents of the appeal.

BACKGROUND

Tobacco Retailers are a police regulated business, governed by SDMC sections 33.4501-33.4519. See Attachment A. Tobacco Retailers are also subject to the General Provisions that govern all Police Regulated Occupations and Businesses, as required by SDMC sections 33.0101-33.0109. See Attachment B.

The Crown Coffee and Hookah Lounge applied for a police permit to operate as a Tobacco Retailer. See Attachment C. The application was approved, and the Crown Coffee and Hookah Lounge was issued permit number 2011008326. The permit was originally valid from April 30, 2011, until April 30, 2012. See Attachment D. Through subsequent renewals, the permit was extended through May 31, 2014. See Attachment E.

In addition to the Tobacco Retailer permit, the Crown Coffee and Hookah Lounge also held a police permit to provide Entertainment, with conditions. The Entertainment permit was valid from September 21, 2011, until September 30, 2012. See Attachment F. Entertainment permits are governed by SDMC sections 33.1501-33.1514. See Attachment G. Upon expiration of the Entertainment permit, the Crown Coffee and Hookah Lounge did not reapply for renewal. However, the Tobacco Retailer permit remained in force.

Regulatory penalties for police regulated businesses are set forth in section 33.0403 of the SDMC. See Attachment H. On June 13, 2013, the San Diego Police Department (SDPD) gave Notice of Revocation of the Tobacco Retailer Permit to the Crown Coffee and Hookah Lounge. See Attachment I. The decision to revoke the Tobacco Retailer permit came after numerous meetings and warnings, which failed to bring about compliance. See Attachment J.

The Crown Coffee and Hookah Lounge requested an appeal of the Police Department's revocation. The appeal process is governed by SDMC sections 33.0501-33.0508. See Attachment K. The appeal was conducted over two days (August 8, 2013, and October 22, 2013) before the Honorable William H. Wise, Judge (retired), of the Administrative Hearing Program. Judge Wise issued an Administrative Enforcement Decision and Order, dated November 12, 2013, in which he upheld the revocation of the Tobacco Retailer Permit. See Attachment L.

By letter dated November 22, 2013, Dante Pride, Esquire, wrote to the City Clerk on behalf of Crown Coffee and Hookah Lounge requesting an appeal to the Committee on Public Safety and Neighborhood Services (now the Committee on Public Safety and Livable Neighborhoods). See Attachment M. This Committee must now determine whether any of the conditions set forth in SDMC section 33.0505(d) exist, and whether to grant the request for an appeal hearing.

During the pendency of the appeal process, the revocation has been stayed allowing Crown Coffee and Hookah Lounge to continue operating as a Tobacco Retailer.

GROUND FOR APPEAL

Mr. Pride states two grounds upon which he believes the Committee may hear the appeal of the Crown Coffee and Hookah Lounge. First, he cites SDMC section 33.0505(d)(3) and alleges the hearing officer's decision was arbitrary because no evidence was presented to the hearing officer that supports the decision. Second, citing SDMC section 33.0505(d)(4), Mr. Pride claims the appeal presents a city-wide issue on which guidance of the Committee is required and the matter is of city-wide significance. Each claim is hereby addressed and refuted.

A. Was the hearing officer's decision arbitrary because no evidence was presented to the hearing officer that supports the decision? SDMC § 33.0505(d)(3).

Answer: No. The SDPD presented evidence upon which the hearing officer could rely. The evidence presented by SDPD included documentary evidence and witness testimony, including testimony from officers of the SDPD, members of local business and community groups, and local residents and business owners.

1. Judge Wise found the preponderance of the evidence clearly indicated violations of the following provisions of the SDMC:
 - a. SDMC § 33.4501 – The purpose and intent of Division 45 of the Municipal Code which governs Tobacco Retailers.
 - b. SDMC § 33.0103(a) – SDPD's right to inspect police regulated businesses.
 - c. SDMC § 33.0103(a) – Police regulated businesses may not prevent or hinder SDPD inspection.

- d. SDMC § 33.1503(a) – Entertainment may not be provided without a police permit (the Order cites SDMC § 33.0103(a), which is a clerical error).
- e. SDMC § 33.1502 – Definitions of Entertainment which includes dancing and music provided by a DJ.
- f. SDMC § 33.0101(c) – It is a misdemeanor to operate a police regulated business without a police permit.
- g. SDMC § 33.0403(a) – Acts or omissions on the part of a permittee that may subject the permittee to regulatory action by the Chief of Police against the police permit.

2. Judge Wise made the following findings:

- a. Crown Coffee and Hookah Lounge is a police-regulated business because it sells tobacco.
- b. Crown Hookah expressly agreed to the right of reasonable inspection by signing the Tobacco Retailer application.
- c. Crown Hookah's permit only authorized the sale of tobacco products, but it engaged in entertainment and provided functions of an entertainment establishment on multiple occasions after its Entertainment permit had expired, in violation of the SDMC.
- d. Crown Hookah prevented the SDPD from carrying out its inspection of the premises in violation of the SDMC.

3. SDPD presented evidence to the hearing officer at the Administrative Hearing. *See Attachment N.*¹

- a. Division 45, Permits for Tobacco Products Sales, is part of Article 3 of the Municipal Code, Police Regulated Occupations and Businesses. The Tobacco Retailer permit application states Tobacco Retailers must have a police permit. The face of the Tobacco Retailer Permit states that it is a Police Regulated Business Permit, in bold letters at the top. SDPD presented the following evidence:

(1) Exhibit 1, Tobacco Retailer permit application.

¹ The evidence cited in this memo (and contained in Attachment N) does not constitute the entire record of evidence presented by SDPD at the Administrative Hearing. Rather, the evidence provided herein is that which directly relates to the hearing officer's "Determination of Issues and Legal Conclusions."

- (2) Exhibit 2, Tobacco Retailer permit, 4/30/11 to 4/30/12.
 - (3) Exhibit 3, Tobacco Retailer permit renewal application.
 - (4) Exhibit 4, Tobacco Retailer permit, 4/30/12 to 4/30/13.
 - (5) Exhibit 5, Tobacco Retailer permit renewal application.
 - (6) Exhibit 6, Tobacco Retailer permit, 5/31/13 to 5/31/14.
 - (7) Testimony of Officer Cindy Meyer, SDPD Vice Permits and Licensing.
- b. Crown Coffee and Hookah Lounge's owner, Mr. Abdulkerim, agreed to the right of SDPD to inspect the business premises by signing the acknowledgment on the Tobacco Retailer permit application. SDPD presented the following evidence:
- (1) Exhibit 1, Tobacco Retailer permit application.
 - (2) Exhibit 3, Tobacco Retailer permit renewal application.
 - (3) Exhibit 5, Tobacco Retailer permit renewal application.
 - (4) Testimony of Officer Cindy Meyer, SDPD Vice Permits and Licensing.
- c. Crown Coffee and Hookah Lounge had a police permit to provide Entertainment, which was valid for the period 9/21/11 until 9/30/12. After the Entertainment permit expired, the owner did not seek to renew the permit. Nonetheless, Crown Coffee and Hookah Lounge continued to provide entertainment, in violation of the SDMC. SDPD presented the following evidence:
- (1) Exhibit 7, Entertainment permit with conditions, 9/21/11 to 9/30/12.
 - (2) Exhibit 11, Officer Spillane report of 11/16/12: Providing entertainment without an Entertainment permit (charging admission, no security for patron count, exceeding occupancy, loud music over 50 feet).
 - (3) Exhibits 13, 14, 15, and 16, reports of Officer James, Officer Campbell, Officer Cunanan, and Officer Peterson respectively, all dated 3/8/13: Providing entertainment without an Entertainment permit (DJ, patron dancing, imposing a cover charge for entry)
 - (4) Exhibit 20, Officer McAndrew report of 5/4/13: Providing entertainment without an Entertainment permit (patron dancing).
 - (5) Exhibits 21 and 22, reports of Officer Cooley and Officer Williams, respectively, dated 5/17/13: Providing entertainment without an Entertainment permit (patron dancing)
 - (6) Exhibit 42, Officer Pendleton report of 5/10/13: Providing entertainment without an Entertainment permit (three DJs and patron dancing)
 - (7) Exhibit 44, screen shots of DJ's tweets on twitter announcing DJ tonight at Crown Hookah Lounge, all after the Entertainment permit expired
 - (8) Testimony of Officer Cindy Meyer, SDPD Vice Permits and Licensing
 - (9) Testimony of Officer Bruce Getz, SDPD Vice Permits and Licensing
 - (10) Testimony of Sgt. Kevin Moyna, SDPD Vice Permits and Licensing

(11) Testimony of Godfrey “Pete” Quiachon

- d. The Crown Coffee and Hookah Lounge did not allow SDPD to inspect the premises. SDPD presented the following evidence:

- (1) Exhibit 11, Officer Spillane report of 11/16/12: Failure to allow access for inspection.
- (2) Exhibit 20, Officer McAndrew report of 5/4/13: Reluctance to allow access for inspection.

B. Does this appeal present a city-wide issue on which guidance of the Committee is required and the matter is of city-wide significance? SDMC § 33.0505(d)(4).

Answer: No. Without citing any legal authority, Mr. Pride claims Mr. Abdulkerim had a constitutionally-protected property right in the Tobacco Retailer Permit. Mr. Pride also concludes, without any legal basis, that Mr. Abdulkerim’s permit was unconstitutionally revoked because the SDPD relied upon an obviously constitutionally overbroad section of the Code.

Mr. Pride’s constitutional arguments are misplaced. They were irrelevant to the underlying Administrative Hearing, and are not relevant here. The hearing officer’s powers are governed by SDMC section 33.0504, which states:

A hearing officer has no power:

- (1) to declare an ordinance or statute unenforceable on the basis of it being unconstitutional unless an appellate court has made a determination that the ordinance or statute is unconstitutional;
- (2) to declare an ordinance or statute unconstitutional;
- (3) to declare an ordinance or statute unenforceable on the basis of its being preempted by another ordinance or statute, unless an appellate court has made a determination that the ordinance or statute is preempted; or
- (4) to declare an ordinance or statute preempted by another ordinance or statute.

In conformance with section 33.0502 of the SDMC, the Administrative Hearing was conducted to determine the existence of any facts that constituted grounds for the denial, suspension, placing conditions upon, or revocation of the permit. Mr. Pride’s challenge to the constitutionality of the SDMC regulations governing police regulated businesses is beyond the scope of any appeal that may be granted by this Committee.

CONCLUSION

There are no grounds upon which this Committee may grant the request of Crown Coffee and Hookah Lounge to hear an appeal. Neither SDMC sections 33.0505(d)(3) nor 33.0505(d)(4) apply, as those circumstances have not been shown to exist in this case. Evidence was presented to the hearing officer to support his decision. The appeal presents no city-wide issue requiring the guidance of this Committee. The decision of the hearing officer should stand, and this Committee should deny the request for an appeal.

EXHIBIT G

Article 3: Police Regulated Occupations and BusinessesDivision 15: Entertainment Establishments

(Retitled from "Cabarets — Dance Halls" to "Entertainment Establishments" on 11-20-2000 by O-18887 N.S.)

§33.1501 Purpose and Intent

The Council of the City of San Diego encourages the development of arts and culture in San Diego, and recognizes that many entertainment venues provide a means for such development. The Council of the City of San Diego further recognizes that the variety of entertainment venues in the City provide a rich and diverse cultural experience for the residents of the City and visitors to the City. The Council also recognizes that many non-alcoholic entertainment venues provide a safe place for families and young adults to gather.

The Council of the City of San Diego finds that the operations of entertainment establishments present an environment with the demonstrated potential for excessive noise generation and disorderly conduct by patrons, particularly at closing times, with the attendant adverse public safety impact on the surrounding business and residential community.

Therefore, it is the purpose of this Division to regulate the operations of entertainment establishments for the public safety. All permittees will be held responsible for controlling patron conduct in and around the establishments, making adequate provisions for security and crowd control, protecting the City's youth from criminal activity and minimizing disturbances as a result of the operation of the entertainment.

It is also the intent of this Division to provide options to the Chief of Police in regulating the variety of businesses and events which provide entertainment. Council finds that the imposition of conditions tailored to the particular establishment will allow the business or event to flourish while meeting the City's public safety needs and avoiding unnecessary conditions on existing businesses or organizations which would change the mode of operation of a law-abiding business or organization with a history of compliance with the City laws.

(Retitled to "Purpose and Intent" and amended 11-20-2000 by O-18887 N.S.)

§33.0401 Regulatory and Penal Nature of Laws

- (a) Any requirement of this Article is both regulatory and penal in nature, except as to those sections or subsections specifically designated as regulatory only by use of the phrase "regulatory only." - (c) Regulatory action may be taken based on an act, omission, or attempt to act, that contravenes the applicable provisions of this Article or of any other provision of law, without regard to whether a criminal complaint is filed or, if a criminal complaint is filed, without regard to the pendency of any proceeding, conviction or appeal. Re: REVOCATION – Police Regulated Tobacco Permit #2011008326.

Mr. Abdulkerim:

This letter is to inform you that the San Diego Police Department's (SDPD) Permits & Licensing Unit hereby revokes Crown Coffee & Hookah Lounge's (hereinafter Crown Hookah) above-referenced Tobacco Permit, #2011008326. As the holder of a police permit, you are subject to all the rules and regulations applicable to Police Regulated Businesses, found in Article 3 of the San Diego Municipal Code (SDMC). Section 33.4514(a) of the Municipal Code states: All penalties and regulatory action related to a police permit issued to operate as a tobacco retailer shall be conducted as prescribed in Municipal Code §33.0401 through §33.0406. Therefore, revocation of your tobacco retailer permit is authorized pursuant to SDMC §33.0403 which governs regulatory penalties for all police regulated businesses.

In particular, your police permit to operate as a tobacco retailer is being revoked under the following authority:

§33.0403 Regulatory Penalties

(a) In addition to any other penalties provided by law, any permittee who does any of the following is subject to regulatory action by the Chief of Police against his or her police permit:

- (1) Violates or allows the violation of any section of this Article, any law or regulation pertaining to the business, or violates any condition imposed on the permit;

- (4) Fails to take corrective action after timely written notice of an observed violation;
 - (5) Negligently fails to supervise the business resulting in a pattern of violations described by patrons, employees, or both;
 - (6) Manifests an inability to properly perform the duties relating to the police-regulated activity as evidenced by the commission or omission of an act or series of acts.
- (b) Regulatory action includes the following:
- (2) Issuance of a written warning;
 - (3) Issuance of a notice of violation;
 - (6) Revocation of the police permit;
 - (8) Denial of an application for renewal of a police permit.

The revocation of Crown Hookah's Police Regulated Tobacco Permit #2011008326 is based on the following:

Since the opening of your business on April 15, 2011, SDPD has responded to more than one hundred seventy-one (171) Calls For Service, conducted and documented more than eighty-five (85) Field Interviews, and issued various Notice of Violation(s)/Warning Letter(s).

Between September 16, 2011, and March 16, 2013, SDPD has made several arrests and issued numerous citations for violations such as: assault; obstructing/resisting a Police Officer; minors in possession of alcohol; possession of a controlled substance; open container; disorderly conduct; loitering/noise complaints; and failure to post permits/licenses.

On August, 08, 2012, a formal Administrative Hearing was held to address ongoing problems and related regulatory actions. SDPD prevailed at the hearing and you were assessed fine(s)/cost(s) by the Administrative Hearing Officer on August 16, 2012.

On at least two occasions, SDPD Officers were denied access and/or met with resistance when they attempted to conduct compliance inspections of Crown Hookah's premises: On November 16, 2012, an SDPD Officer requested admittance to Crown Hookah to perform a compliance inspection. You personally denied this Officer access stating that you had spoken to your attorney and that Crown Hookah was not a police regulated business, pursuant to Officer Spillane's Report Narrative in support of Incident #12110027957. Further, on May 04, 2013, another SDPD Officer attempted to conduct a compliance inspection based on numerous complaints of large crowds, loud music, fights and excessive noise. Initially, a member of Crown Hookah's designated security staff expressed reluctance to admit this Officer and only did so following a conversation with an SDPD Sergeant, pursuant to Investigator K.

McAndrew's narrative in support of the Notice of Violation for: security staff not wearing attire that easily identified them as such; providing live entertainment/dancing without a valid permit; inadequate emergency exit; inability to provide an accurate count of patrons inside; and security failing to check patron identification prior to admittance.

The San Diego Police Department hereby asserts that Crown Hookah is, in fact, a police regulated business. (See Chapter 3, Article 3, Division 45, Sections 33.4501 et seq. of the San Diego Municipal Code.) Therefore, for failing to allow free access to inspect the premises, you have violated SDMC § 33.0103(a), which states:

§33.0103 Inspections and Authority of Peace Officers or Police Employees

- (a) The Chief of Police shall make, or cause to be made, regular inspections of all police-regulated businesses. Any peace officer shall have free access to any police-regulated business during normal operating hours. It is unlawful for any permittee or employee to prevent or hinder any peace officer from conducting an inspection.

Furthermore, as a condition of the granting of a police permit, you expressly agreed to this "right of reasonable inspection," by affixing your signature to the Tobacco Retailer Permit Application, #2011008326.

The San Diego Police Department has made several attempts to work with you to resolve various problems related to your business. In response to the unabated Calls For Service and unresolved issues, SDPD met with you and/or your Attorney of Record to discuss various complaints stemming from illegal alcohol/drug activity, violence, theft, weapons, loitering, noise, parking, security, and other public safety issues. The first meeting was held on February 20, 2013, and the second meeting was held on April 11, 2013. Both times, SDPD offered numerous recommendations to help you mitigate the long-standing problems and establish a better rapport with neighboring businesses and residents. These meetings and recommendations have had little to no positive impact.

On September 07, 2011, Crown Hookah applied for and was granted an Annual Police Regulated Entertainment Permit #2011008326, which was valid from September 21, 2011, and expired on September 30, 2012. After the expiration of your Entertainment Permit, at the aforementioned meeting of February 20, 2013, you stated that Crown Hookah "no longer provides entertainment." However, on May 4, 2013, an SDPD officer observed patron dancing on the premises, and on May 9, 2013, another SDPD officer observed a DJ providing entertainment on site.

Thus, Crown Hookah is in violation of SDMC §33.1503(a) which states: "It is unlawful for any person to provide or permit any entertainment which is open to the public without a police permit."

June 13, 2013
Anis Mohammed Abdulkarim, Owner
CROWN COFFEE & HOOKAH LOUNGE

The definition of "entertainment" is found in SDMC § 33.1502, which states:

§33.1502 Definitions

For purposes of this Division:

"Entertainment" or "Entertainment Establishment" means any single event, a series of events, or an ongoing activity or business, occurring alone or as part of another business, to which the public is invited or allowed to watch, listen, or participate, or is conducted for the purposes of holding the attention of, gaining the attention of, or diverting or amusing guests or patrons, including:

- (b) Dancing to live or recorded music.
- (c) The presentation of recorded music played on equipment which is operated by an agent or contractor of the establishment, commonly known as "DJ" or "disc jockey."

For providing entertainment without the requisite police permit, Crown Hookah is in violation of SDMC § 33.0101(c) which states, in part: "It is a misdemeanor for any person to operate a business or engage in an occupation regulated by this Article without a police permit."

Crown Hookah's Tobacco Retailer Permit only authorizes the sale of tobacco products, it does not authorize entertainment on the premises. Section 33.0102(a) of the Municipal Code requires a separate police permit for each police-regulated business activity carried on at a specific location, except for Secondhand Dealers.

Unfortunately, in spite of SDPD's efforts to assist you in mitigating the aforementioned issues, problems at Crown Hookah remain and continue to adversely impact police resources, public safety, and the quality of life. It is for this reason and pursuant to the authority stated herein, the Permits and Licensing Unit of the San Diego Police Department hereby revokes Crown Hookah's Police Regulated Tobacco Retailer Permit #2011008326.

As such, no action will be taken with respect to the Renewal Application that you submitted on May 16, 2013. In addition, pursuant to SDMC § 33.4514(b), for the duration of this revocation, all tobacco products and tobacco paraphernalia shall be removed from public view.

Should you choose to appeal this action, you may request a hearing by writing to:

COLLEGE AREA ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION
INTEROFFICE MEMORANDUM

TO: EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE
FROM: JENNIFER R. FINNEGAN, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
SUBJECT: CROWN COFFEE & HOOKAH LOUNGE
DATE: 7/20/2012

The Crown Coffee & Hookah Lounge (7059 El Cajon Blvd) has been having problems with neighboring businesses since they opened about a year ago. There have been complaints of customers from Crown illegally consuming alcoholic beverages in parking lots of neighboring businesses and in the alley behind the buildings. Nearly every morning reports of urine, vomit, and trash are made from neighboring businesses. Several noise complaints from neighbors have been called in to SDPD.

In an attempt to address these issues a meeting was called on Monday, July 16th at 5:30pm ← at the Terra Restaurant (7091 El Cajon Blvd.). The following people (businesses) were noted in attendance:

- Anis Abdulkerim (Crown Coffee & Hookah) with 2 employees (Security Guards)
- Mike Rossman (Terra)
- Dr. Kelly & Mrs. Kelly (Boulevard Animal Hospital)
- Chuck Schwimmer (Charco Construction) and 1 employee
- Mike Bond (Bond Automotive)
- Godfried Frachan (Apartment Manager)
- 2 Owners of Ace Budget Motel
- Lara Easton (Neighborhood Prosecutor)
- Luis Roman (Mid-City Community Relations Officer, SDPD)
- Chuck Kaye (Vice, SDPD)
- Laura Reibau (Eastern Area Community Council)
- 3 Residents who live near Crown Coffee & Hookah
- Jennifer Finnegan (College Area Business District)

Many complaints were heard from the neighbors and business representatives. Anis stated that many of the issues were the cause of a local gangs, not his customers, and that the SDPD was already aware of the gang activity. Luis Roman reported that over 100 disturbance calls had been recorded over the past year for the Crown Coffee & Hookah lounge. After about an hour of complaints, accusations, and defensive statements it became clear a resolution would not be made that evening.

I summarized the requests from the community to Anis:

- Increase security outside the Crown building and include patrols around the back of the building;
- Reduce hours of operation to close at 12pm (current business is open 4pm-4am);
- Add security cameras to exterior of business to help monitor the situation;
- Assist the police in stopping the criminal activity outside the business by reporting loitering outside the business during night time hours.

I met with Anis again, one on one, at the CAEDC office on Wednesday, July 18th to further discuss the issues. He was very adamant that reducing his hours would put him out of business as most of his customers are taxi drivers who are up throughout the night. He stated that he has made many changes to the operations of the business to try and alleviate the issues: wrist bands for customers who have been ID'd as able to enter; no re-entry after a certain time; no admittance for anyone visibly intoxicated; discontinued DJ/loud music; security outside the building.

In addition he stated that he had been in contact with some of the neighboring businesses that did NOT believe Crown Coffee & Hookah the cause of the issues. I offered to contact the following people if Anis would provide me with their names and phone numbers:

- Duke's Liquor
- Top Value Tire
- Residents directly behind Crown Coffee & Hookah

Finally, Anis has stated more than once that he has tried to meet with Luis Roman (Mid-City CRO) and has been unsuccessful of getting a meeting set-up. I offered to try and facilitate a meeting between the two gentlemen.

Subject: Warning letter for Crown Hookah Lounge Tobacco Police Permit
#2011008326

This letter is to serve as a written warning issued against your police permit. It also is to identify and describe the circumstances of the violations and explain the consequences of failure to correct the violations. The written warning is issued against the permit pursuant to San Diego Municipal Code (SDMC) section 33.0403(b)(2).

The Crown Hookah Lounge located at 7059 El Cajon Blvd., San Diego, California 92115, accumulated numerous calls for service from September 1, 2012 through January 31, 2013. These calls consisted of five disturbances, twelve noise complaints, one drunk in public, one for discharging of firearm, two persons down, one theft and a rival gang-related shooting. The total out of service time for police services was 108.78 hours. In addition to the calls for service, the business has been the subject of citizen complaints for parking issues, loitering and excessive noise. The above are violations of the SDMC, California Penal Code and California Business and Professions Code.

In response to the above issues, on February 20, 2013, you, the owner, Anis Mohammed Abdulkirim, of the Crown Hookah Lounge, your counsel, Dante Pride, and members of the San Diego Police Department (SDPD) Vice, Permits & Licensing Unit met at Police Headquarters, to discuss the above mentioned issues. The topics also covered the sections of the SDMC relating to entertainment, noise and tobacco. SDPD made several recommendations which included improved lighting, additional security guards, alarm system, public safety security, developing and training employees on fraudulent documentation and proper identification and the possible use of outside consultants.

At the meeting you stated that Crown Hookah Lounge no longer provided entertainment. The SDMC sections defining entertainment was clearly explained. To date, Crown Hookah Lounge continues to advertise the hosting of DJ's on the website: www.crownhookahlounge.com

Since the meeting, SDPD responded to Crown Hookah Lounge because of the same issues and in March 2013, you were issued a citation for providing entertainment in the business without possessing a police permit. In addition, a customer of the business was cited for possession of an open alcoholic beverage, another customer was cited for possession of alcohol by a person under 21 years old, and one person was arrested for drunk in public.

As the owner of Crown Hookah Lounge, you are responsible for your business operations and the operating requirement of your tobacco permit. And your staff is also responsible for the operations of your business. A responsible person as defined in the SDMC means not only the person who holds the police permit, but each person who is otherwise responsible for the operation, management, direction, or policy of a police-regulated business. It also includes an employee who is in apparent charge of the premises. See SDMC § 33.0201, Definitions of Police Regulated Businesses and Occupations.

SDMC section 33.4514 (a), entitled Penalties and Regulatory Action states that: All penalties and regulatory action related to a police permit issued to operate as a tobacco retailer shall be conducted as prescribed in Municipal Code sections 33.0401 to 33.0406. SDMC section 33.0403(a) reads in pertinent part:

§33.0403 Regulatory Penalties

 - (1) Violates or allows the violation of any section of this Article, any law or regulation pertaining to the business, or violates any condition imposed on the permit;
 - (5) Negligently fails to supervise the business resulting in a pattern of violations described by patrons, employees, or both;
 - (6) Manifests an inability to properly perform the duties relating to the police-regulated activity as evidenced by the commission or omission of an act or series of acts.

Based on the aforementioned incidents, you and your staff at the Crown Hookah Lounge have shown a pattern of conduct demonstrating a flagrant inability to manage patrons and minimize disorderly/unlawful conduct. You and your staff have violated or allowed the violation of the SDMC and other laws, you have negligently failed to supervise the business resulting in a pattern

04/11/2013 at 1000 hours at 7059 El Cajon Blvd: Scheduled Meeting with Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim and his employees in the recognition of false identification. Also, included in this meeting was to come up with some solutions to lesson calls for service and citizen complaints about noise, disorderly conduct, and criminal activity.

Sgt. Mensior-Facilitated the class on recognition of false identification.

Officer Roman (Community Service Officer) and Officer Meyer-Evaluated the property inside and out for Security and ideas in making Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim have a successful business for himself and the community surrounding his Hookah Lounge.

Officer Getz spoke to several business owners in and around the area of the Crown Hookah Lounge. The biggest complaint to the business owners was the constant clean up vomit. They (business owners) elaborated, in the past they could just hose the vomit down the gutter, but now by law they have to call Hazmat. The cost of Hazmat or a fine for hosing the vomit can be expensive. Officer Getz also educated Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim on entertainment again.

Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim arrived at 1018 hours with no other employees. Therefore, Sgt. Mensior gave a one on one class on the recognition of false identification to Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim. Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim said he would relay what he learned about the class to his employees at 1600 hours that day.

The following were some ideas to help and support Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim in his security and to lesson calls for service. See Officer Roman's Report for more details on the evaluation of the Crown Hookah Lounge.

- ✚ Patrons to only use front door.
- ✚ Patrons never enter from back door.
- ✚ Fence in back parking lot and parking lot used only by employees. Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim commented people throw their old furniture in his dumpster. This will also take care of this issue.
- ✚ Keep both back doors closed while open for business.

(18)

- ✚ Install a camera in the back parking lot.
- ✚ Do not allow reentry.
- ✚ Fix surveillance camera monitor in office. (Has cameras inside business but main computer in office is not working)
- ✚ Educated Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim, by law he must ask for ID up to the age of 27 years old.
- ✚ Have Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim get to know his surrounding businesses and owners.
- ✚ Fix lock on back security gate.

Conclusion: Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim said he would educate his employees at 1600 hours that day 4/11/2013, and would take into consideration all that was mentioned.

If the above mentioned recommendations were to be accomplished, Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim will have a reduction in calls for service and at the same time have a successful business for himself and the surrounding community.

CROWN COFFEE & HOOKAH LOUNGE
7059 El Cajon Boulevard
San Diego, CA 92115

Subject: WARNING LETTER - Crown Hookah Lounge
Police Regulated Tobacco Permit #2011008326

This letter is to serve as a written warning issued against your police permit. It also is to identify and describe the circumstances of the violations and explain the consequences of failure to correct the violations. The written warning is issued against the permit pursuant to San Diego Municipal Code (SDMC) section 33.0403(b)(2).

The Crown Hookah Lounge located at 7059 El Cajon Blvd., San Diego, California 92115, accumulated numerous calls for service from September 1, 2012 through January 31, 2013. These calls consisted of five disturbances, twelve noise complaints, one drunk in public, one for discharging of firearm, two persons down, one theft and a rival gang-related shooting. The total out of service time for police services was 108.78 hours. In addition to the calls for service, the business has been the subject of citizen complaints for parking issues, loitering and excessive noise. The above are violations of the SDMC, California Penal Code and California Business and Professions Code.

In response to the above issues, on February 20, 2013, you, the owner, Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim, of the Crown Hookah Lounge, your counsel, Dante Pride, and members of the San Diego Police Department (SDPD) Vice, Permits & Licensing Unit met at Police Headquarters, to discuss the above mentioned issues. The topics also covered the sections of the SDMC relating to entertainment, noise and tobacco. SDPD made several recommendations which included improved lighting, additional security guards, alarm system, public safety security, developing and training employees on fraudulent documentation and proper identification and the possible use of outside consultants.

At the meeting you stated that Crown Hookah Lounge no longer provided entertainment. The SDMC sections defining entertainment was clearly explained. To date, Crown Hookah Lounge continues to advertise the hosting of DJ's on the website: www.crownhookahlounge.com

Since the meeting, SDPD responded to Crown Hookah Lounge because of the same issues and in March 2013, you were issued a citation for providing entertainment in the business without possessing a police permit. In addition, a customer of the business was cited for possession of an open alcoholic beverage, another customer was cited for possession of alcohol by a person under 21 years old, and one person was arrested for drunk in public.

As the owner of Crown Hookah Lounge, you are responsible for your business operations and the operating requirement of your tobacco permit. And your staff is also responsible for the operations of your business. A responsible person as defined in the SDMC means not only the person who holds the police permit, but each person who is otherwise responsible for the operation, management, direction, or policy of a police-regulated business. It also includes an employee who is in apparent charge of the premises. See SDMC § 33.0201, Definitions of Police Regulated Businesses and Occupations.

SDMC section 33.4514 (a), entitled Penalties and Regulatory Action states that: All penalties and regulatory action related to a police permit issued to operate as a tobacco retailer shall be conducted as prescribed in Municipal Code sections 33.0401 to 33.0406. SDMC section 33.0403(a) reads in pertinent part:

§33.0403 Regulatory Penalties

- (a) In addition to any other penalties provided by law, any permittee who does any of the following is subject to regulatory action by the Chief of Police against his or her police permit:

 - (5) Negligently fails to supervise the business resulting in a pattern of violations described by patrons, employees, or both;
 - (6) Manifests an inability to properly perform the duties relating to the police-regulated activity as evidenced by the commission or omission of an act or series of acts.

Based on the aforementioned incidents, you and your staff at the Crown Hookah Lounge have shown a pattern of conduct demonstrating a flagrant inability to manage patrons and minimize disorderly/unlawful conduct. - (b) The request for a hearing must be in writing to the City Manager and must be made within ten calendar days from the date of the receipt of the notice of action denying, suspending, revoking or placing conditions on the permit.

- (c) Upon receiving a written request for a hearing, or upon the granting of a hearing pursuant to Section 33.0501(f), the City Manager shall set a hearing not less than five nor more than thirty calendar days from the date of receipt of the appeal or from the granting of the hearing.
- (d) The City Manager shall notify the applicant or permittee of the date, time and place of the hearing by means of registered mail, certified mail or hand delivery.
- (e) Except as provided in Section 33.0501(f), failure to file the request for a hearing within the ten calendar day period shall result in the denial of a hearing by the City Manager.

(11-2000)

- (f) The appellant may request that the hearing be granted despite noncompliance with the ten-day filing rule. The appellant must demonstrate good cause for noncompliance in writing. The City Manager must forward the written request to a hearing officer, who will decide whether a hearing should be granted. The Chief of Police shall be afforded the opportunity to set forth his or her position in writing on this issue to the hearing officer.
- (g) Any requests for a hearing that occur after thirty calendar days from receipt of the notice of regulatory action will not be forwarded to a hearing officer and must be denied by the City Manager.

§ 33.0502 Conduct of the Appeal Hearing

- (a) A hearing shall be conducted to determine the existence of any facts that constitute grounds for the denial, suspension, placing conditions upon or revocation of the permit.
- (b) The applicant or permittee may have the assistance of counsel or may appear by counsel and shall have the right to present evidence.
- (c) If the applicant or permittee, or counsel representing the applicant or permittee, fails to appear at the hearing, the appeal is abandoned and the action of the Chief of Police is final.
("Right of Appeal to City Council" retitled to "Conduct of the Appeal Hearing" and amended 11-20-2000 by O-18885 N.S.)

§ 33.0503 Appeal Hearing Decision

- (a) The hearing officer may uphold the denial, suspension, revocation or other decision of the Chief of Police, may allow that which has been denied, reinstate that which has been suspended or revoked, reverse or modify any other decision of the Chief of Police that is the subject of the appeal.

(11-2000)

- (b) A copy of the decision of the hearing officer specifying findings of fact and the reasons for the decision shall be furnished to the applicant, permittee, or the designated representative and the Chief of Police within thirty calendar days of the hearing. If the hearing officer determines the complexity of the case requires additional time in which to render a decision, the time in which to render the decision is automatically extended another thirty calendar days.

This subsection does not apply to permittees governed by Section 33.0507.

- (c) The decision of the hearing officer shall be final ten calendar days from the action of the hearing officer, except
- (1) in the event of an appeal brought under Section 33.0505; or
 - (2) if the permittee is governed by Section 33.0507.

 - (2) However, if the hearing involves an applicant or permittee of a business or occupation that is a First Amendment protected business or occupation, including businesses and occupations governed by Chapter III, Article 3, Divisions 33 and 36 of this Code, the decision of the hearing officer is the final administrative remedy.
- (f) In decisions involving businesses and occupations protected by the First Amendment, including businesses and occupations governed by Chapter III, Article 3, Divisions 33 and 36 of this Code, the effect of a decision by the hearing officer is stayed pending judicial review of the hearing officer's decision, or until the time to file for such review has expired. If judicial review of the hearing officer's decision is sought, the effect of the decision by the hearing officer is stayed until the judicial review is complete. In decisions involving the denial of a police permit, if the decision of the hearing officer is to uphold the denial, the denial remains in effect until otherwise modified or overturned by a court of competent jurisdiction.

("Appeal Hearing Decision" added 11-20-2000 by O-18885 N.S.)

§ 33.0504 Limits on Hearing Officer's Power

A hearing officer has no power:

- (1) to declare an ordinance or statute unenforceable on the basis of it being unconstitutional unless an appellate court has made a determination that the ordinance or statute is unconstitutional;
- (2) to declare an ordinance or statute unconstitutional;
- (3) to declare an ordinance or statute unenforceable on the basis of its being preempted by another ordinance or statute, unless an appellate court has made a determination that the ordinance or statute is preempted; or

- (c) When an appeal is filed with the City Clerk, it shall be placed on the Committee on Public Safety and Neighborhood Services (or its successor committee) agenda for the limited purpose of determining whether the Committee will hear the appeal.

(11-2000)

- (d) The Committee may accept an appeal for hearing when any of the following situations are found to exist:
 - (1) The appellant was denied the opportunity to make a full and complete presentation to the hearing officer.
 - (2) New evidence is now available that was not available at the time of the hearing officer's hearing.
 - (3) The hearing officer's decision was arbitrary because no evidence was presented to the hearing officer that supports the decision.
 - (4) The appeal presents a City-wide issue on which guidance of the Committee on Public Safety and Neighborhood Services (or its successor committee) is required and the matter is of City-wide significance.
 - (5) The hearing officer's decision is in conflict with adopted Council policy or the Municipal Code.

- (j) Section 33.0505 does not apply to applicants or permittees who are seeking to engage in, or are engaged in, a business or occupation protected by the First Amendment. This includes the businesses and occupations regulated in Divisions 33 (peep show establishments) and 36 (nude entertainment). ("Right of Appeal to the Committee on Public Safety and Neighborhood Services; Procedure; Decisions" added 11-20-2000 by O-18885 N.S.)

§ 33.0506 Review for Denials of Permits to Engage in First Amendment Activity

City of Dallas*, 493 U.S. 215 (1990) or other controlling case law, shall have prompt judicial review of the decision to deny the permit.

The decision to deny such permit is the final administrative action for the applicant, who may then immediately seek writ review in Superior Court pursuant to local court rules, the California Rules of Court, and the Code of Civil Procedure. The businesses and occupations regulated in Divisions 33 (peep show establishments) and 36 (nude entertainment) are governed by this Section.

("Review for Denials of Permits to Engage in First Amendment Activity" added 11-20-2000 by O-18885 N.S.)

§ 33.0507 Review for Regulatory Action Taken Against Permit Holders Engaged in First Amendment Activity

Any person who holds a police permit for a business or occupation that is protected by the First Amendment, and who has had regulatory action taken against them, shall have the same appeal rights as those contained in Sections 33.0501 through 33.0503, except that:

- (a) The hearing officer shall issue and mail his or her decision within fifteen calendar days of the completion of the appeal hearing to suspend or revoke the permit. The time to render a decision may not be extended unless all parties agree to such an extension; and
- (b) The decision of the hearing officer shall be final five calendar days from the mailing of the decision to the parties; and shall be the final administrative remedy; and (11-2000)

- (c) There is no appeal to the City Council or any subcommittee thereof; and
- (d) Either party may seek prompt judicial review of the hearing officer's decision pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure; and
- (e) If the permittee seeks judicial review, the effect of the decision of the hearing officer shall be stayed while the permittee seeks prompt judicial review. If no judicial review is sought, the effect of the decision of the hearing officer is final as soon as the final date for seeking such review has passed.
("Review for Regulatory Action Taken Against Permit Holders Engaged in First Amendment Activity" added 11-20-2000 by O-18885 N.S.)

§ 33.0508 Other Administrative Appeals Not Applicable

The appeal hearings contained in this Division are the only administrative appeal hearings which apply to police-regulated businesses. The appeal process provided for in Section 22.0101 of this Code does not apply to police-regulated businesses.

16 and one security guard to actively monitor and conduct roving patrols throughout the venue and 17 premises parking lot. This permit expired September 30, 2012.

18 10. On November 16, 2012, and other occasions, SDPD officers requested and were 19 denied admittance to Crown Hookah to perform compliance inspections.

20 11. On May 4, 2013 SDPD officers conducted a compliance inspection after 21 numerous complaints of large crowds, loud music, fights, excessive noise, and inadequate
22 security. Notice of violations issued for: staff not wearing attire that easily identified them;
23 providing live entertainment/dancing without a valid permit; inadequate emergency exits;
24 inability to provide an accurate account of patrons inside the establishment; and security failing 25 to check patron identification prior to admittance.

12. Service calls for SDPD have resulted in numerous notices of violation and/or warning letters issued to Crown Hookah.

13. Between September 16, 2011 and March 16, 2013 numerous arrests and citations were issued. These included: assault; weapons (gun on premises); minors in possession of alcohol and false identification; disorderly conduct; excessive noise; loitering; possession of controlled substances; and failure to post permits/licenses.

14. A July, 2012 meeting was held with Jennifer Finnegan, College Area and Business Heights Maintenance District, to discuss keeping the area around Crown Hookah clean

1 of vomit, urine, feces, condoms, and used syringes. Recommendations to accomplish this were 2 suggested.

3 15. A mediation agreement was reached between Crown Hookah's owner, Anis
4 Mohammed Abdulkerim, and Maurizo Bouchard Rios, College Area Community Service
5 Representative, November 2, 2012. The conditions enumerated therein were to be instituted by 6 Crown Hookah.

7 16. SDPD held meetings with Crown Hookah February 20, 2013 and April 11, 2013
8 to mitigate problems and to establish better rapport with neighbors and the business community.

9 17. During the February 20, 2013 meeting Crown Hookah indicated it no longer 10 provided entertainment.

11 18. Crown Hookah provided patron dancing and DJ entertainment after its 12 entertainment permit expired.

13 19. Crown Hookah's Tobacco Retailer Permit was revoked June 13, 2013.

14 20. Crown Hookah's reapplication for permit has resulted in non-action by SDPD and 15 the revocation remains in full force and effect.

16 IV. DETERMINATION OF ISSUES AND LEGAL CONCLUSIONS

17 1. SDMC section 33.4501 reads as follows.

18 It is the purpose and intent of this Division to provide for 19 local regulation of tobacco retail businesses by requiring police
20 permits. The intent is to discourage violations of law prohibiting 21 the sale or distribution of tobacco products to minors to protect 22 their health, welfare, and safety. It is also the intent that all costs 23 associated with the administration and enforcement of this 24 Division be borne by tobacco retailer applicants and permittees. It 25 is further the intent that recoveries hereunder shall be used to pay the costs of administering and enforcing this Division.

2 2. SDPD has free access to regular inspections of all police regulated businesses
3 during normal working hours. SDMC § 33.0103(a)

4 3. It is unlawful for any permittee or employee to prevent or hinder any Peace Officer
5 from conducting an inspection. SDMC § 33.0103(a)

6 4. SDMC section 33.0103(a) reads, "It is unlawful for any person to provide or 7 permit entertainment which is open to the public without a public permit."

1 5. SDMC section 33.1502 reads as follows.

2 “Entertainment” or “Entertainment Establishment” means any
3 single event, a series of events, or an ongoing activity or business,
4 occurring alone or as part of another business to which the public is invited or allowed to watch, listen, or participate, or is conducted for the purposes of amusing guests or patrons, including:

5 ...

6 (b) DANCING to live or recorded music.

7 (c) The presentation of recorded music which is played on 8 equipment which is operated by an agent or contractor of the establishment, commonly known as “DJ” or “Disc Jockey”

9 6. SDMC section 33.0101(c) reads, “It is a misdemeanor for any person to operate a 10 business or engage in an occupation regulated by this article without a police permit.

11 7. SDMC section 33.0403(a) reads as follows.

12 (a) In addition to other penalties provided by law, any 13 PERMITEE who does any of the following is subject to regulatory action by the Chief of Police against his or her Police Permit.

14 1. Violates or allows the violation of any section of this 15 Article, any law or regulation pertaining to the business, or violates any condition imposed on the permit.

16 2. Negligently fails to supervise the business resulting in a 17 pattern of violations described by patrons, employees, or both.

18 3. Manifests an inability to properly perform the duties 19 relating to the police regulated activity as evidenced by the omission of an act or series of acts.

20 8. Crown Hookah is a police regulated business because it sells tobacco.

21 9. Crown Hookah, by affixing its signature to the Tobacco Retailers Permit
22 Application, expressly agreed to the right of reasonable inspection as a condition of granting said permit.

23 10. Crown Hookah’s Tobacco Retailers Permit only authorizes the sale of tobacco
24 products, but it engaged in entertainment and provided the functions of an entertainment 25 establishment on multiple occasions after it’s entertainment permit had expired in violation of the SDMC.

11. Crown Hookah also prevented the SDPD from carrying out its inspection of the premises in violation of the SDMC.

12. Therefore, the preponderance of the evidence clearly indicates violations of provisions of the SDMC as described above. The revocation of Crown Hookah's tobacco permit as well as the denial of its reapplication for Police Regulated Tobacco Permit is warranted.

V. ORDER

THEREFORE, the following order(s) are made:

1. The revocation of Crown Coffee and Hookah's Police Regulated Tobacco Permit #2011008326 is affirmed and remains in full force and effect.

2. Administrative Hearing Officer hereby relinquishes jurisdiction in this matter.

Re: Administrative Hearing Case No. XXXXXXXXX; Crown Coffee & Hookah Lounge Appeal Hearing Request with Committee on Public Safety and Neighborhood Services

Greetings Ms. Maland,

This firm represents Crown Coffee & Hookah Lounge and its owner, Anis Abdulkерim, in the above-listed matter. This letter is Mr. Abdulkерim's formal request for an appeal of the hearing officer's decision to the Committee on Public Safety and Neighborhood Services. While Mr. Abdulkерim has yet to receive personal service of the decision, this firm received electronic notice on November 12, 2013. As such, this request is being made - in an abundance of caution - within the 10-day time period as provided in the San Diego Municipal Code ("the Code").

Briefly, Mr. Abdulkерim's Tobacco Retailer's Permit was revoked by the San Diego Police Department ("SDPD"). As is his right under the Code, Mr. Abdulkерim timely filed an appeal to said revocation. At the appeal hearing - the written and/or recorded transcript of which is available to you from the hearing officer - various "evidence" and testimony was presented related to noise complaints and some unruly and noisy patrons leaving Mr. Abdulkерim's business. Also, evidence was presented related to Mr. Abdulkерim possibly providing entertainment on the premises, possibly without the necessary entertainment permit. Throughout the hearing, Mr. Abdulkерim attempted to elicit testimony of any violation of a tobacco control law, as it relates to his Tobacco Retailer's Permit. Mr. Abdulkерim was unable to elicit such testimony from any of the SDPD officers or witnesses who testified against Mr. Abdulkерim. Even the hearing officer noted that there did not seem to be any allegation of a violation of a tobacco control law as it relates to the Tobacco Retailer's Permit.

The purpose of the Tobacco Retailer's Permit, as outlined by the Code is:

"...to provide for local regulation of tobacco retail businesses by requiring police permits. The intent is to discourage violations of law prohibiting the sale or distribution of tobacco products to minors to protect their health, welfare, and safety..."

(S.D.M.C. section 33.4501; emphasis added.) As more fully set out in the underlying hearing, Mr. Abdulkirim obtained a constitutionally-protected property right in the Tobacco Retailer's Permit by virtue of his monetary investment in obtaining the business to use the permit and also by virtue of SDPD's requirement that Mr. Abdulkirim obtain the permit in order to engage in his profession. Mr. Abdulkirim did not violate the letter nor the intent of the Tobacco Retailer's Permit. A quick read through this section of the Code supports this assertion. This point was very clearly made and agreed with by the hearing officer.

Instead, the SDPD relied upon an obviously constitutionally overbroad section of the Code, stating that they could revoke a conditional use permit of any person who:

section 33.0403(a)(1): "Violates or allows the violation of any section of this Article, any law or regulation pertaining to the business, or violates any condition imposed on the permit;" (emphasis added.)

Even the hearing officer opined something to the effect that "the City Council should be informed about this section of the Code because the City is definitely going to have some constitutional issues as it relates to this section." As argued by the SDPD, and as apparently supported by the Code, ANY violation of ANY portion of the Code can be the basis for the revocation of a special use permit, even if the purpose and intent of the special use permit has NOTHING to do with any alleged violations. This is how Mr. Abdulkirim's permit was unconstitutionally revoked.

According to the Code, the Committee on Public Safety and Neighborhood Services has the authority to accept appeals when it finds that certain conditions exist. (S.D.M.C. section 33.0505(d).) In this instance, the following conditions exist:

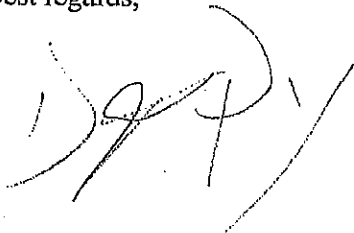

(3) The hearing officer's decision was arbitrary because no evidence was presented to the hearing officer that supports the decision.

(4) The appeal presents a city-wide issue on which guidance of the Committee on Public Safety and Neighborhood Services is required and the matter is of city-wide significance.

Here, as mentioned above, ZERO evidence was presented that Mr. Abdulkerim violated any tobacco control laws as they relate to his Tobacco Retailer's Permit. As such, the hearing officer's decision is arbitrary. As well, because of the obvious constitutional issues with the provision of the Code relied upon by the SDPD, this appeal presents an issue which has city-wide applicability and importance. This issue will be one that will be revisited by permit-holders throughout the City, if not addressed now. The money which the City will expend to defend both this and future constitutional claims, based on the specific provision outlined above will be better used in other services and areas of the City's operating budget.

Based on the foregoing, the original appeal and the recorded and/or written transcript of the appeal hearing, Mr. Abdulkerim requests an appeal hearing to the Committee on Public Safety and Neighborhood Services to determine the validity of SDPD's revocation of his Tobacco Retailer's Permit.

Best regards,

OFFICER'S STATEMENT:

On 11-16-2012 at about 0050 hours I was on patrol in the Rolando Area. I was in full uniform and on a fully marked City of San Diego patrol bicycle. I was also the acting sergeant in charge of the Mid City Bicycle Team.

The Mid City Bicycle Team is a proactive team that deals with quality of life issues in Mid City. The team has also received training in vice operations dealing with rules, regulations and permitting of bars and establishments licensed for entertainment and other police regulated businesses.

On this date the team deployed to the area of 7000 El Cajon Boulevard, specifically 7059 El Cajon Boulevard, The Crown Hookah Bar. 7059 El Cajon Boulevard has generated 38 calls for service in the last six months mostly for noise and violent disturbances at the location. Based on the numerous establishments the bike team deals with, this number is higher than most establishments that provide entertainment.

When the team arrived in the 7000 block of El Cajon Boulevard we were first met by a SDPD beat officer who informed the team the bar had lots of activity and the officer had already cited citizens in the parking lot of the establishment for separate violations of smoking marijuana in public and having open containers of alcohol in public. Music from the business was audible by over 50' with the doors to the business closed.

The team immediately took enforcement action and had to clear the sidewalk in front of the business for the minor violation of blocking the sidewalk for pedestrians walking and having to avoid going into the street to avoid the crowd. I also made contact with the two security guards out front and introduced myself. As with all establishments providing entertainment I asked the guard what the number of people he had inside the business. The guard told me he did not know. All establishments I have contacted in the past, security out front always has a, "clicker" and can give me an accurate number of patrons inside. The guard also told me the business was charging a, "Cover charge" to patrons at $10.00 per person and the price had gone up to $20.00 per person after 2200 hours.

I asked the guard what the maximum occupancy of the business is? Again security told me he did not know. At this point I told to guard to go inside and bring out the owner or on duty manager.

After about ten minutes of waiting a male came outside and identified himself to me as the sole proprietor of the business. He identified himself as ANIS ABDULKERIM (DOB 04-05-1981). I had spoken to ABDULKERIM the previous night while familiarizing myself of the area prior to deploying my team on this night.

During the previous night, ABDULKERIM had called for police assistance for two females who were intoxicated and inside the business refusing to leave.

On this night, I asked ABDULKERIM how many persons were inside? ABDULKERIM told me, "100". I asked ABDULKERIM how he knew this and ABDULKERIM told me he had given out wristbands to customers. I asked ABDULKERIM what his maximum occupancy was? ABDULKERIM told me, "100". I asked ABDULKERIM if he had a sign inside clearly visible, per fire code stating his maximum occupancy. ABDULKERIM told me he did.

I told ABDULKERIM as a business providing entertainment; in this situation he needed to have one (1) guard per 50 patrons. ABDULKERIM told me he knew this and essentially had four guards inside. As our conversation continued various people came out and listened to the questions I was asking ABDULKERIM about code regulations and quickly went back inside the business. I noted the music had shut off and the house lights in the establishment had come on. The business regularly has entertainment until 0200 hours and the time was only 0105 hours.

I told ABDULKERIM since he is a police regulated business; my team and I would be entering the establishment to perform an inspection of permits and licensing. ABDULKERIM informed me he had spoken to his attorney and he is not a police regulated business and would not grant me access to the business for the inspection. ABDULKERIM then accused me of harassment based on my previous contact the night before when I introduced myself to ABDULKERIM, and now being back tonight informing him of the violations I was seeing. I assured ABDULKERIM the inspection I was going to perform is the same inspection I have done to numerous establishments in the mid city area that are police regulated or a business providing entertainment (i.e. charging money for entry with audible music).

When the house lights came on, patrons began to exit the establishment. I positioned Officer T. Hoskins #6650 at the front door and asked him to keep a head count of persons leaving. I also positioned an officer in the rear of the establishment to ensure no persons left through rear exit. As my explanation and conversation continued with ABDULKERIM, Officer Hoskins notified me of his count several times. At one point, I was told 151 persons had exited the establishment. When I told ABDULKERIM this number he told me I was wrong and Officer Hoskins count was incorrect.

After about 30 minutes of persons exiting the establishment I saw the crowd inside was minimal compared to when we had first arrived. I told ABDULKERIM we were going to make entry and I wanted to see all licenses related to his business from the City of San Diego. ABDULKERIM told me, "I will get them, stay here." I told ABDULKERIM no, the team would be coming inside to inspect the licenses. When we entered the business Officer Hoskins had a count of 202 persons who had exited the establishment. When we were inside, I tasked Officer B. Devore #6742 to count the remaining customers inside the business. Officer Devore told me he had counted 46 patrons inside. The total number of patrons in the business had been 248.

ABDULKERIM did produce a City of San Diego business license clearly visible on the wall but did not produce a standard entertainment permit. After performing the inspection of the licenses the team exited the establishment. When we were outside I had bike team members inspect the guard cards of security at the front door, this is a basic check we perform of all establishments during the course of our inspections. Both guards did have valid cards. I asked ABDULKERIM to go into the business and bring out the security he spoke of originally when we arrived, so I could inspect the guard cards. ABDULKERIM told me, "There is no security working inside."

I questioned ABDULKERIM about his original statement to me about having security inside and knowing the code for the patron to security ratio. ABDULKERIM began to deny the conversation we had, but Officer Reinhold #6223 interrupted and told ABDULKERIM he had questioned a male inside during the inspection who informed Officer Reinhold he works at the establishment as security. Again ABDULKERIM was asked if the guards inside had guard cards? ABDULKERIM told me, "No".

At this time the majority of the crowd had cleared out and left the area. The bike team concluded its inspection at this time and left the area.

INVESTIGATOR'S REPORT

DATE: 03-08-2013
TIME: 0110 hours
LOCATION: Crown Hookah Lounge
7059 El Cajon Blvd San Diego, Ca.
SUBJECT: Entertainment without a Permit
IH #13030012779

CHARGES: 33.1503(a) MC – Providing Entertainment without a Permit

SUSPECT: Name: Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim
Address: [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

DISPOSITION: Suspect was arrested and released on his signed promise to Appear – Citation #Y1252895

WITNESS: Detective S. James #5663
S.D.P.D. Vice Unit
(619) 531-2451

EVIDENCE:

- 1) Original voice recording of the conversation was downloaded and impounded at the headquarters property room.
- 2) Original video disc of the DJ was downloaded and impounded at the headquarters property room.

INVESTIGATION:

On 03-08-2013, at approximately 0100 hours, Sergeant Holden #4997, Detectives Peterson #5605, Cunanan #4863, Brinkerhoff #5717, Campbell #6367, Mid-City patrol units and I conducted an inspection at the Crown Hookah Lounge. On 09-30-2012, the owner Anis Abdulkerim let his entertainment permit expire. The community has complained about noise problems and narcotics activity coming from the business causing numerous radio calls for patrol. We have had patrol units from the division advise us they believed the business was providing entertainment.

Detective Cunanan and I drove past the front and it appeared the business was charging a cover charge. Detective Cunanan and I then drove in the south alley behind the business and we saw a male who appeared to be conducting security checks in the back parking lot. I rolled my window down and I asked the male what was going on at the business. The male said, "It's a hookah club." I asked him if there was a DJ inside and he replied, "Yeah, there's a DJ."

As we walked in, the music was loud and I could see a disc jockey set up on the south wall directly ahead of me. In the middle of the business, in front of the DJ booth, there were approximately 20 to 30 people dancing. The business was so crowded, it took me a couple of minutes to make my way to the cash register counter on the southeast side of the business. I spoke with the employees and I asked to see the owner. One of the employees said the owner was in the DJ booth.

The employee walked over to the DJ booth and I followed her. The only male in the DJ booth was the DJ. The employee walked back to the counter and looked in the back. I asked the employee if he might be in the office. I followed the employee to the office. The employee knocked on the door several times but there was no answer. She tried to open the door but it was locked. I looked at the back door by the office and it was closed with a padlock on it.

I started to walk to the front when I saw a male exit the bathroom. I recognized him as the owner and I confirmed it with him. I asked for his identification and he gave me his California driver's license that identified him as Anis Abdulkerim. I asked Abdulkerim to step out front with me and he walked outside. Abdulkerim was on his cell phone.

Detective Peterson spoke to the DJ and took a statement from him. For more information, see Detective Peterson's report. Detective Cunanan spoke to two customers and took a statement. Detective Cunanan told me that one customer paid a $20 dollar cover charge and the other paid a $5 dollar cover charge because he had a VIP card. For more information on the interview of the customers, see Detective Cunanan's report.

Reporting Investigator: S. James ID#5663 Section: Vice Operations

Approved By: Sgt M. Holden #4997 Date of Report: 03-08-2013 Time: 0250 Hrs

Once outside, I asked Abdulkerim to hang up his phone while we were talking with him and he complied. I advised Abdulkerim he was being cited for providing entertainment without a permit. As I was filling out the citation and conducting a records check on Abdulkerim, he said, "Here's my attorney." A male walked up and Detective Campbell allowed Abdulkerim's attorney to stand next to Abdulkerim.

I advised Abdulkerim the citation was for providing entertainment without a permit and I needed him to sign the citation. I advised him by signing the citation, he was not admitting guilt but promising to appear in court. Abdulkerim was released on his signed promise to appear. I did not take a statement from Abdulkerim.

CONCLUSION:

Based on the above information, I am requesting Abdulkerim be charged with one count of providing entertainment without a permit. I am forwarding this report to the City Attorney's Office for review.

INVESTIGATOR'S REPORT

DATE: March 8, 2013

TIME: 0100 Hours

LOCATION: Crown Hookah Lounge, 7059 El Cajon Blvd, San Diego CA

SUBJECT: Incident #13030012779

On 03/08/13, at approximately 0100 hours, I assisted Det. James with an investigation at the Crown Hookah Lounge at 7059 El Cajon Boulevard. During the investigation, I used a digital audio recorder to record my surroundings. I later transferred that recording to CD. Det. James impounded the CD at Headquarters.

When we entered the business, there was loud music playing. I saw a DJ on the south wall of the business. In front of the DJ was a group of approximately 20 to 30 people dancing. After looking for several minutes and asking several employees, Det. James located the owner of the business, Anis ABDULKERIM in the men's restroom of the building. Det. James, ABDULKERIM, and I stepped outside the business.

While Det. James was issuing a citation to ABDULKERIM, customers began to exit the business. ABDULKERIM wanted to walk over and talk to a security guard. I told him he had to stay where he was while Det. James issued the citation. ABDULKERIM yelled at a security guard. The guard walked over to talk to him. ABDULKERIM asked him to tell someone (I could not make out the name) to play "Pandora" – a streaming internet music service. The security guard responded, "She's telling everybody to leave." ABDULKERIM told the security guard not to tell people to leave.

ABDULKERIM's attorney arrived. I allowed him to stand next to ABDULKERIM while Det. James issued the citation. For further details, please see Det. James' Investigative Report.

On 03/08/12, at approximately 0100 hours, I assisted Detective James with an investigation at the Crown Hookah Lounge located at 7059 El Cajon Blvd. During this investigation, I spoke with and took the statement of the disc jockey (DJ).

When I entered the business with my fellow detectives I could hear loud music playing. There were people throughout the business dancing. The DJ was positioned along the south wall and looked to be elevated as if he was on some type of platform. I walked up to the DJ identified as [REDACTED] and took a photo of him, along with a brief video of him playing music. Mascardo had headphones on and his hands were moving along the digital turntables. A female employee walked up to [REDACTED] and with a hand motion told [REDACTED] to turn off the music. [REDACTED] lifted his headphones a little from his ears to hear what the female was telling him. The female told [REDACTED] to turn the music off. After [REDACTED] turned the music off, I asked [REDACTED] if I could speak with him and he stated I could.

I asked [REDACTED] if he knew the Crown Hookah was operating without an entertainment permit and he stated he didn't know anything about a permit. [REDACTED] stated he was a customer and the regular DJ stepped outside. Before going outside, the regular DJ asked [REDACTED] to watch the equipment. [REDACTED] stated the owner, Anis knew he also DJ's, so Anis asked him to DJ for a little bit. [REDACTED] stated he was only playing music for 5 minutes. [REDACTED] stated he was on his 2nd song.

[REDACTED] stated for the past few months Crown Hookah has a DJ playing music every Thursday.

Detective James issued the owner, Anis Abdulkerim a citation for entertainment without a permit. See Detective James investigative report.

The written warning is issued against the permit pursuant to San Diego Municipal Code (SDMC) section 33.0403(b)(2).

The Crown Hookah Lounge located at 7059 El Cajon Blvd., San Diego, California 92115, accumulated numerous calls for service from September 1, 2012 through January 31, 2013. These calls consisted of five disturbances, twelve noise complaints, one drunk in public, one for discharging of firearm, two persons down, one theft and a rival gang-related shooting. The total out of service time for police services was 108.78 hours. In addition to the calls for service, the business has been the subject of citizen complaints for parking issues, loitering and excessive noise. The above are violations of the SDMC, California Penal Code and California Business and Professions Code.

In response to the above issues, on February 20, 2013, you, the owner, Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim, of the Crown Hookah Lounge, your counsel, Dante Pride, and members of the San Diego Police Department (SDPD) Vice, Permits & Licensing Unit met at Police Headquarters, to discuss the above mentioned issues. The topics also covered the sections of the SDMC relating to entertainment, noise and tobacco. SDPD made several recommendations which included improved lighting, additional security guards, alarm system, public safety security, developing and training employees on fraudulent documentation and proper identification and the possible use of outside consultants.

At the meeting you stated that Crown Hookah Lounge no longer provided entertainment. The SDMC sections defining entertainment was clearly explained. To date, Crown Hookah Lounge continues to advertise the hosting of DJ's on the website: www.crownhookahlounge.com

Since the meeting, SDPD responded to Crown Hookah Lounge because of the same issues and in March 2013, you were issued a citation for providing entertainment in the business without possessing a police permit. In addition, a customer of the business was cited for possession of an open alcoholic beverage, another customer was cited for possession of alcohol by a person under 21 years old, and one person was arrested for drunk in public.

As the owner of Crown Hookah Lounge, you are responsible for your business operations and the operating requirement of your tobacco permit. And your staff is also responsible for the operations of your business. A responsible person as defined in the SDMC means not only the person who holds the police permit, but each person who is otherwise responsible for the operation, management, direction, or policy of a police-regulated business. It also includes an employee who is in apparent charge of the premises. See SDMC § 33.0201, Definitions of Police Regulated Businesses and Occupations.

SDMC section 33.4514 (a), entitled Penalties and Regulatory Action states that: All penalties and regulatory action related to a police permit issued to operate as a tobacco retailer shall be conducted as prescribed in Municipal Code sections 33.0401 to 33.0406. SDMC section 33.0403(a) reads in pertinent part:

§33.0403 Regulatory Penalties

- (a) In addition to any other penalties provided by law, any permittee who does any of the following is subject to regulatory action by the Chief of Police against his or her police permit:
 - (1) Violates or allows the violation of any section of this Article, any law or regulation pertaining to the business, or violates any condition imposed on the permit;
 - (5) Negligently fails to supervise the business resulting in a pattern of violations described by patrons, employees, or both;
 - (6) Manifests an inability to properly perform the duties relating to the police-regulated activity as evidenced by the commission or omission of an act or series of acts.

Based on the aforementioned incidents, you and your staff at the Crown Hookah Lounge have shown a pattern of conduct demonstrating a flagrant inability to manage patrons and minimize disorderly/unlawful conduct. You and your staff have violated or allowed the violation of the SDMC and other laws, you have negligently failed to supervise the business resulting in a pattern of violations, and you have manifested an inability to properly perform the duties related to the police-regulated activity.

Further violations of this nature may result in suspension or revocation of your tobacco police permit. If you have any questions or wish to request a meeting regarding this warning letter, please contact me, Sergeant Moyna at (619) 531-2282 or kmoyna@pd.sandiego.gov.

04/11/2013 at 1000 hours at 7059 El Cajon Blvd: Scheduled Meeting with Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim and his employees in the recognition of false identification. Also, included in this meeting was to come up with some solutions to lesson calls for service and citizen complaints about noise, disorderly conduct, and criminal activity.

Sgt. Mensior-Facilitated the class on recognition of false identification.

Officer Roman (Community Service Officer) and Officer Meyer-Evaluated the property inside and out for Security and ideas in making Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim have a successful business for himself and the community surrounding his Hookah Lounge.

Officer Getz spoke to several business owners in and around the area of the Crown Hookah Lounge. The biggest complaint to the business owners was the constant clean up vomit. They (business owners) elaborated, in the past they could just hose the vomit down the gutter, but now by law they have to call Hazmat. The cost of Hazmat or a fine for hosing the vomit can be expensive. Officer Getz also educated Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim on entertainment again.

Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim arrived at 1018 hours with no other employees. Therefore, Sgt. Mensior gave a one on one class on the recognition of false identification to Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim. Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim said he would relay what he learned about the class to his employees at 1600 hours that day.

The following were some ideas to help and support Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim in his security and to lesson calls for service. See Officer Roman's Report for more details on the evaluation of the Crown Hookah Lounge.

- ✚ Patrons to only use front door.
- ✚ Patrons never enter from back door.
- ✚ Fence in back parking lot and parking lot used only by employees. Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim commented people throw their old furniture in his dumpster. This will also take care of this issue.
- ✚ Keep both back doors closed while open for business.

(18)

- ✚ Install a camera in the back parking lot.
- ✚ Do not allow reentry.
- ✚ Fix surveillance camera monitor in office. (Has cameras inside business but main computer in office is not working)
- ✚ Educated Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim, by law he must ask for ID up to the age of 27 years old.
- ✚ Have Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim get to know his surrounding businesses and owners.
- ✚ Fix lock on back security gate.

Conclusion: Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim said he would educate his employees at 1600 hours that day 4/11/2013, and would take into consideration all that was mentioned.

If the above mentioned recommendations were to be accomplished, Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim will have a reduction in calls for service and at the same time have a successful business for himself and the surrounding community.

SAN DIEGO POLICE DEPARTMENT
INVESTIGATOR'S REPORT

DATE: May 4, 2013

TIME: 2330 Hours

LOCATION: 7059 El Cajon Blvd (Crown Hookah Lounge)

SUBJECT: Notice of violation for Crown Coffee & Hookah Lounge

ESTABLISHMENT:

Crown Hookah Lounge
City of San Diego Permit 2011008326

DISPOSITION:

Regulatory report submitted to Police Permits & Licensing

INVESTIGATION:

The owner/manager of Crown Hookah Lounge told me, during the time of the inspection that he had a permit with the city of San Diego but refused to provide it to me upon request.

On May 4, 2013, I conducted an inspection, in full police uniform of Crown Hookah Lounge with Sergeant Higdon and several other uniformed police officers. My specific assignment was to conduct an inspection at this establishment to make sure it is in compliance with all regulatory statutes.

We have received several complaints surrounding the Crown Hookah Lounge regarding large amounts of patrons, loud music as well as fights and noise in the surrounding neighborhood.

Upon arrival at Crown Hookah Lounge, I could hear loud music emitting from inside the establishment. When I first noticed the music, I was standing on the sidewalk just east of the establishment. The front door was closed. I estimated the distance to be over 75 feet. I could see several people standing on the sidewalk outside of the front door to the Crown Hookah Lounge. I also noticed two males who stated they were "security" but was not wearing marked "security" shirts and could not be identified as security.

I contacted one of the security guards who was standing at the main entrance and identified myself as Officer McAndrew, with the San Diego Police Department. I informed them I was going to conduct an inspection of the establishment. The security guard was hesitant to grant me access. Sergeant Higdon spoke to the security guard and I walked inside the establishment.

Once I was inside the establishment I noticed there were about 100 people inside. I saw a DJ booth located against the back (south) wall facing the entrance. The DJ booth was empty but had backpacks and what appeared to be personal items in the booth. Loud music was coming from large speakers mounted around the inside of the establishment.

In front of the DJ booth was a large cleared out space where several people were dancing. I walked around the establishment but did not locate a DJ.

The rear fire exit door was locked with a pad lock and could not be accessed during an emergency. The rear door was also not monitored by security.

Based on my knowledge of the Crown Hookah Lounge, I knew the use of a DJ and dancing was not allowed because they did not have an entertainment permit. I exited the establishment and requested to speak with the manager that was currently on duty.

Several minutes later I was greeted by the on duty manager. I told the manager he was not allowed to have a DJ or have dancing at his establishment. The manager assured me no one was dancing inside. At that moment the front door was opened by a patron and I could see several people still dancing inside. I pointed to the people dancing to bring it to his attention. The manager closed the door and told me they were not dancing.

I asked the manager, as well as the security guards, how many people were currently inside the establishment. They were unable to provide me with an accurate count of the pedestrians but estimated the number to be around 88.

While I was outside speaking with the manager and security guards I observed several people walk into the establishment without having their identification checked by the door man. When I asked why they have an "18 and up only" sign in the window but didn't check identification they were unable to provide me with an answer. The manager made a statement about stamps but was unable to explain how it worked or show me the stamps they give.

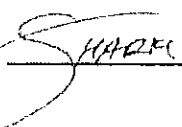

I asked if he had a permit with the city of San Diego. He stated he did but refused to provide it to me. He then removed his cell phone from his pocket and began to text his lawyer. From that point forward he refused to answer any further questions and would not acknowledge me.

33.1513. Permittee must retain a copy of these conditions along with police permit for entertainment and be prepared to provide them to any law enforcement officer upon request. Any violations of the following conditions shall be grounds for suspension or revocation of police permit. Imposition, suspension or revocation of any particular condition is appealable through procedures set forth in (SDMC) Chapter III, Article 3, Division 5. This police permit for entertainment is conditioned as follows:

Must comply with SDMC Chapter III, Article 3, Division 15 and the following conditions:

SYNOPSIS:

I observed dancing taking place inside the Crown Hookah Lounge at 7059 El Cajon Bl.

ORIGIN:

I was on duty and in uniform, driving a marked patrol vehicle. La Mesa Police apparently observed a fight in front of the Crown Hookah Lounge at 7059 El Cajon Bl and notified our dispatch. I responded to that radio call along with several of my officers (Inc #1305031604 at 23:45 hours). When my officers arrived, the participants in the fight had left, and no victims could be located.

BACKGROUND:

There is a history of police problems associated with the Crown Hookah Lounge, and we have had violent incidents here. According to dispatch, there have been 82 radio calls to that exact address in the past year. This does not include radio calls to close by locations or intersections that are related to the Crown Hookah Lounge. I know from my own experience that Thursday nights are a busy night at this lounge. There appeared to be a large crowd in the lounge, a lot of customers coming and going, and frequent cars driving slowly passed observing the crowd in front of the address. I was concerned there may be more violence here if we did not take action. I directed my squad to conduct high visibility enforcement in the area of 7000 El Cajon Bl and surrounding blocks. They made several traffic stops, conducted Field Interviews etc.

VIOLATION:

At about 01:20 hours I drove to the lounge to ask security when they closed so I could make a determination of how long to keep my squad on the special enforcement detail. I drove over alone, as I was only planning on asking that question. I parked about 50 feet West of the front door to the lounge, on the South curb line of El Cajon Bl and walked up toward the front door. I could hear music coming from inside the lounge. The music had a strong beat, like dance music. As I walked adjacent to the West most windows of the lounge, I could see through the lace/mesh type curtains inside. I observed a group of customers inside obviously dancing. Everyone I could see, about a dozen people, were standing and dancing. It appeared there were more people dancing beyond them, but I could only see about that many people as they blocked any further view into the lounge. After perhaps five seconds, one of the several security guards outside and next to the front door yelled something inside and slammed the lounge door shut. The music immediately stopped and the dancing subsequently stopped. It was clear security knew the dancing was a violation and intended to get it stopped immediately when they realized I was observing. As the music stopped almost instantaneously when security called into the lounge, there had to be someone in immediate control of the music, possibly a DJ. I did not enter the lounge beyond the entry way, so I was unable to verify the source of the music or whether there had been a DJ.

I spoke to the lounge owner (Abdulkerim, Anis Mohammed, 04/05/1981, CDL # D1322520). I told him I had observed dancing, and that was a violation. He did not dispute that. I also recommended that he consider implementing a dress code to reduce the likelihood of gang incidents at his business.

CROWN COFFEE & HOOKAH LOUNGE
7059 El Cajon Boulevard
San Diego, CA 92115

Subject: WARNING LETTER - Crown Hookah Lounge
Police Regulated Tobacco Permit #2011008326

This letter is to serve as a written warning issued against your police permit. It also is to identify and describe the circumstances of the violations and explain the consequences of failure to correct the violations. The written warning is issued against the permit pursuant to San Diego Municipal Code (SDMC) section 33.0403(b)(2).

The Crown Hookah Lounge located at 7059 El Cajon Blvd., San Diego, California 92115, accumulated numerous calls for service from September 1, 2012 through January 31, 2013. These calls consisted of five disturbances, twelve noise complaints, one drunk in public, one for discharging of firearm, two persons down, one theft and a rival gang-related shooting. The total out of service time for police services was 108.78 hours. In addition to the calls for service, the business has been the subject of citizen complaints for parking issues, loitering and excessive noise. The above are violations of the SDMC, California Penal Code and California Business and Professions Code.

In response to the above issues, on February 20, 2013, you, the owner, Anis Mohammed Abdulkerim, of the Crown Hookah Lounge, your counsel, Dante Pride, and members of the San Diego Police Department (SDPD) Vice, Permits & Licensing Unit met at Police Headquarters, to discuss the above mentioned issues. The topics also covered the sections of the SDMC relating to entertainment, noise and tobacco. SDPD made several recommendations which included improved lighting, additional security guards, alarm system, public safety security, developing and training employees on fraudulent documentation and proper identification and the possible use of outside consultants.

At the meeting you stated that Crown Hookah Lounge no longer provided entertainment. The SDMC sections defining entertainment was clearly explained. To date, Crown Hookah Lounge continues to advertise the hosting of DJ's on the website: www.crownhookahlounge.com

Since the meeting, SDPD responded to Crown Hookah Lounge because of the same issues and in March 2013, you were issued a citation for providing entertainment in the business without possessing a police permit. In addition, a customer of the business was cited for possession of an open alcoholic beverage, another customer was cited for possession of alcohol by a person under 21 years old, and one person was arrested for drunk in public.

As the owner of Crown Hookah Lounge, you are responsible for your business operations and the operating requirement of your tobacco permit. And your staff is also responsible for the operations of your business. A responsible person as defined in the SDMC means not only the person who holds the police permit, but each person who is otherwise responsible for the operation, management, direction, or policy of a police-regulated business. It also includes an employee who is in apparent charge of the premises. See SDMC § 33.0201, Definitions of Police Regulated Businesses and Occupations.

SDMC section 33.4514 (a), entitled Penalties and Regulatory Action states that: All penalties and regulatory action related to a police permit issued to operate as a tobacco retailer shall be conducted as prescribed in Municipal Code sections 33.0401 to 33.0406. SDMC section 33.0403(a) reads in pertinent part:

§33.0403 Regulatory Penalties

- (a) In addition to any other penalties provided by law, any permittee who does any of the following is subject to regulatory action by the Chief of Police against his or her police permit:
 - (1) Violates or allows the violation of any section of this Article, any law or regulation pertaining to the business, or violates any condition imposed on the permit;
 - (5) Negligently fails to supervise the business resulting in a pattern of violations described by patrons, employees, or both;
 - (6) Manifests an inability to properly perform the duties relating to the police-regulated activity as evidenced by the commission or omission of an act or series of acts.

Based on the aforementioned incidents, you and your staff at the Crown Hookah Lounge have shown a pattern of conduct demonstrating a flagrant inability to manage patrons and minimize disorderly/unlawful conduct. You and your staff have violated or allowed the violation of the SDMC and other laws, you have negligently failed to supervise the business resulting in a pattern of violations, and you have manifested an inability to properly perform the duties related to the police-regulated activity.

Further violations of this nature may result in suspension or revocation of your tobacco police permit. If you have any questions or wish to request a meeting regarding this warning letter, please contact me, Sergeant Moyna at (619) 531-2282 or kmoyna@pd.sandiego.gov.

COLLEGE AREA ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION
INTEROFFICE MEMORANDUM

TO: EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE
FROM: JENNIFER R. FINNEGAN, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
SUBJECT: CROWN COFFEE & HOOKAH LOUNGE
DATE: 7/20/2012

The Crown Coffee & Hookah Lounge (7059 El Cajon Blvd) has been having problems with neighboring businesses since they opened about a year ago. There have been complaints of customers from Crown illegally consuming alcoholic beverages in parking lots of neighboring businesses and in the alley behind the buildings. Nearly every morning reports of urine, vomit, and trash are made from neighboring businesses. Several noise complaints from neighbors have been called in to SDPD.

In an attempt to address these issues a meeting was called on Monday, July 16th at 5:30pm at the Terra Restaurant (7091 El Cajon Blvd.). The following people (businesses) were noted in attendance:

- Anis Abdulkarim (Crown Coffee & Hookah) with 2 employees (Security Guards)
- Mike Rossman (Terra)
- Dr. Kelly & Mrs. Kelly (Boulevard Animal Hospital)
- Chuck Schwimmer (Charco Construction) and 1 employee
- Mike Bond (Bond Automotive)
- Godfried Frachan (Apartment Manager)
- 2 Owners of Ace Budget Motel
- Lara Easton (Neighborhood Prosecutor)
- Luis Roman (Mid-City Community Relations Officer, SDPD)
- Chuck Kaye (Vice, SDPD)
- Laura Reibau (Eastern Area Community Council)
- 3 Residents who live near Crown Coffee & Hookah
- Jennifer Finnegan (College Area Business District)

Many complaints were heard from the neighbors and business representatives. Anis stated that many of the issues were the cause of a local gangs, not his customers, and that the SDPD was already aware of the gang activity. Luis Roman reported that over 100 disturbance calls had been recorded over the past year for the Crown Coffee & Hookah lounge. After about an hour of complaints, accusations, and defensive statements it became clear a resolution would not be made that evening.

I summarized the requests from the community to Anis:

- Increase security outside the Crown building and include patrols around the back of the building;
- Reduce hours of operation to close at 12pm (current business is open 4pm-4am);
- Add security cameras to exterior of business to help monitor the situation;
- Assist the police in stopping the criminal activity outside the business by reporting loitering outside the business during night time hours.

I met with Anis again, one on one, at the CAEDC office on Wednesday, July 18th to further discuss the issues. He was very adamant that reducing his hours would put him out of business as most of his customers are taxi drivers who are up throughout the night. He stated that he has made many changes to the operations of the business to try and alleviate the issues: wrist bands for customers who have been ID'd as able to enter; no re-entry after a certain time; no admittance for anyone visibly intoxicated; discontinued DJ/loud music; security outside the building.

In addition he stated that he had been in contact with some of the neighboring businesses that did NOT believe Crown Coffee & Hookah the cause of the issues. I offered to contact the following people if Anis would provide me with their names and phone numbers:

- Duke's Liquor
- Top Value Tire
- Residents directly behind Crown Coffee & Hookah

Finally, Anis has stated more than once that he has tried to meet with Luis Roman (Mid-City CRO) and has been unsuccessful of getting a meeting set-up. I offered to try and facilitate a meeting between the two gentlemen.

INVESTIGATOR'S REPORT

DATE: May 10, 2013
TIME: 0045 Hours
LOCATION: Crown Coffee & Hooka Lounge
7059 El Cajon Blvd.
San Diego, Ca. 92115
SUBJECT: Notice of Violation

WITNESS: Sgt. Bruce Pendleton, #4706
SDPD Vice Operations
(619) 531-2461

INVESTIGATION:

I am a Sergeant, currently assigned to the Vice Unit. I am the supervisor in charge of Vice Team I.

On May 10, 2013, I was working as an undercover detective sergeant, targeting prostitution activity on El Cajon Blvd. I was driving an unmarked police vehicle and dressed in casual attire.

As my team and I were driving east on 7000 El Cajon Blvd, I saw a large group of people outside of the Crown Hooka Lounge. The crowd was made up of males and females. Most of them were casually dressed.

I rolled down my vehicle window as I drove past and could hear loud music coming from inside. I decided to conduct a covert inspection to determine the source of the music.

At about 0045 hours, I parked my vehicle in the parking lot on the corner of 71st and El Cajon Blvd. I walked down the sidewalk, westbound towards the Crown Hookah Lounge. I was about 125 feet away from the business and I could clearly hear the music from inside. As I reached the door, I could see that the people outside were young adults and appeared to be in their early 20's.

The door opened and I started to walk inside. I was stopped by a male who appeared to be either Hispanic or Pacific Islander. He was approximately 25 to 30 yrs old, clean shaven, short black hair, approximately 6ft tall and approximately 220 lbs. He told me there was a 10 dollar cover charge. I asked him if there was an ATM inside. He said, yes and that he would have to come with me if I wanted to use it. I said ok and he followed me inside. Immediately after entering I could see there were about 30 to 40 people dancing in the middle of the room. Beyond them, on the south side of the business, I could see three D.J.s. They appeared to be on an elevated platform because they were clearly standing above the people who were dancing in front of them. I could see a laptop computer and two of the males appeared to be concentrating on something that was on the table in front of them. There were no females on the platform and the males were not dancing.

On May 10, 2013 I verified that Crown Hookah does not have a valid entertainment permit. On February 4, 2013 a letter was sent to the permit holder, informing them permit # 2011008326 expired on September 30, 2012.

Crown Coffee and Hooka Lounge is in violation of the following:

33.1503 SDMC- It is unlawful to provide or permit entertainment which is open to the public without a police permit.

ENTERTAINMENT- Dancing to live or recorded music. Recorded music played on equipment operated by an agent or contractor of the establishment, commonly known as a "DJ".
